Chair's message

As Chairman of Blacktown Venue Management, I am proud to present the 2023/24 Blacktown Venue Management Ltd 'Year in Review'.

In the past 12 months we have had outstanding success and celebration as well as deep sadness and reflection.

During this period we lost the incumbent Chairman and Mayor of Blacktown City, Tony Bleasdale OAM, as well as his great friend and mentor, and former BVM Director, Bill McNamara OAM.

Tony achieved incredible results during his 14 years as Director and Chairman. Having served as a Director since 2010 and then Chair from 2019, he oversaw some remarkable developments, particularly at Blacktown International Sports Park. His guiding hand expanded what was a 2000 Olympics legacy venue for baseball and softball into one of the best sporting venues in Western Sydney, if not Australia. His immeasurable passion and knowledge for sport and business continuously inspired us to great heights.

Bill was a giant of western Sydney. He was an inaugural Director of BVM, when it was created after the Sydney Olympics, and continued that service for more than 12 years. Bill founded the McNamara Group in the 1950s and his surname is indelibly scribed into the urban landscape of Western Sydney and beyond.

This year brought the highly anticipated opening of the Blacktown Exercise Sport and Technology Hub (BEST) and The Lodge. BEST was designed to provide residents and sportspeople with access to the highest quality health and fitness facilities and services. It has given us great pleasure to welcome the Australian Catholic University, Sydney West Sports Medicine, WentWest and Delaware North as partners in this ground-breaking project. The Lodge has provided much-needed accommodation at Blacktown International Sports Park and created a one stop shop for athletes, teams and tourists to experience the best of Western Sydney.

Our aquatic and leisure centres have once again proven to be the 'go to' places for our residents and visitors. More than 1.7 million people passed through the doors of our 5 venues to swim, splash, exercise and dance, play tennis or kick a ball.

My fellow directors and I are grateful to the fantastic staff who remain committed to providing the highest quality of service and facilities. I would like to extend my thanks for their dedication to delivering to such a high standard. They are an immense source of pride to my fellow directors and I.

I pay tribute to my colleagues on the BVM board and thank them for their unwavering support.

I thank the team at Blacktown City Council for its continued support. And finally, I would like to thank BVM CEO, Kevin Jones, and congratulate the leadership team on another successful year.

Long may it continue.

Mayor Brad Bunting
Chairman
Blacktown Venue Management Ltd

CEO's message

This has once again been an exciting and eventful year for Blacktown Key Venues. We are proud of the role we play in delivering the enjoyment, pleasure, excitement, satisfaction and opportunity that sport and leisure bring to our great City. Every day our venues are party to a theatre of fun, laughter and sporting spectacle. Regardless of age, gender or ethnicity, achievements are celebrated and witnessed across all our venues. What isn't there to be excited about!

I would like to pay tribute to our former Chairman and Blacktown City Mayor Tony Bleasdale OAM. Tony sadly passed away this year after leading a delegation to China and South Korea and delivering on his passion for promoting Blacktown City as the best place to be. Tony would start many of his speeches with 'Are you excited? I'm excited' and it was hard not to agree with him. Tony served as a Director of BVM for over 14 years, the last 5 years as Chairman. His guiding hand was invaluable through the uncertain days of COVID and his leadership and support were a source of inspiration and comfort to all who had the honour of working with him.

We also lost Tony's great mate and former BVM Director Bill McNamara OAM this year. Bill's legacy is seen everywhere around Western Sydney. Projects such as the McNamara Centre and the Octagon at Parramatta, the Parramatta Cultural Centre and the Riverside Theatres, the J.A. Fleming Stand at Rosehill, Westpoint Shopping Centre and Blacktown Aquatic Centre all stand as tribute to Bill's talent and love of Western Sydney. We were fortunate to have Bill's passion for sport and service as a BVM director from 2002 to 2015. Vale Tony and Bill.

On a more uplifting note, I would like to welcome Mayor Brad Bunting as Chair of Blacktown Venue Management. He has served as a Director since 2017, and his knowledge and experience has provided invaluable direction as we adapt and design our facilities and services to suit our changing community.

The 2024/25 year promises to be exciting with the redevelopment of Blacktown Aquatic Centre and Mount Druitt Swimming Centre, and new initiatives and programs at our aquatic and leisure centres. Our goal continues to be to provide the highest possible standard of facilities and service for all our patrons.

I would like to thank all staff for their truly inspiring commitment to the community; without them we could not do what we do so well every day.

My thanks also to Blacktown City Councillors, the executive and our Blacktown Venue Management Directors for their continuing support. Their combined experience and insight guide us in our work as we strive to provide the best possible experience for our visitors.

And finally, thank you to our members and guests for their patronage. It is you who inspire us to greater heights.

Kevin Jones
Chief Executive Officer

Vale Mayor Tony Bleasdale OAM

1946–2024

This year we lost a great visionary, a champion of Western Sydney and long-standing chairman of BVM – Tony Bleasdale OAM.

Tony passed away suddenly on the return flight home after leading a delegation to Blacktown City Council's sister cities in South Korea and China. He was 77.

Tony lived a life defined by service and deep commitment to his community. Born in Liverpool, England in 1946, Tony grew up in a post-war era marked by economic hardship. His father was a dockworker, and his early life was characterised by the challenges of growing up in a working-class family. At only 15, Tony migrated to Australia under the Big Brother Movement in search of better opportunities. This movement brought British boys to Australia for a new start.

After arriving in 1963, Tony settled in Shalvey and began work as a bricklayer. As his career evolved, he became a union official and eventually the managing director of National Contractors, a successful construction industry group. However, his true passion was public service. He was elected a Councillor to Blacktown City in 1996.

Tony's dedication to Blacktown City and its people was evident in his many achievements. He was instrumental in driving transformational projects such as the Warrick Lane development, the Blacktown Exercise, Sport and Technology Hub (BEST) and the $1 billion Blacktown Quarter project with Walker Corporation. His leadership always had a strong focus on community infrastructure, sustainability and cultural inclusivity. He was particularly passionate about improving the lives of disadvantaged constituents and advocating for First Nations people.

He was deeply loved and respected, not just for his public service but for the genuine care he showed everyone he met. As a migrant himself, Tony was keen to provide opportunities and support for new residents and wholeheartedly pushed for a united city that accepted and celebrated people of all backgrounds and cultures. His legacy is one of transformation, community building and a relentless pursuit of a better future for our City.

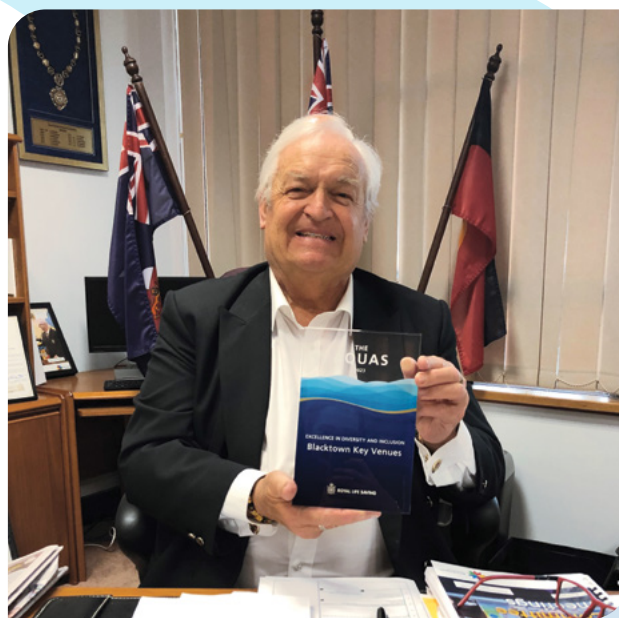

Tony's contributions were formally recognised in 2010 when he was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) for his service to the community and local government.

In 2019, he was elected Mayor of Blacktown City.

Tony was key in helping BVM navigate the COVID pandemic and his dynamic personality helped deliver landmark projects at Blacktown International Sports Park including the AFL/cricket precinct, the Western Sydney Wanderers Centre of Football and, as previously mentioned, the $100 million BEST. Tony served as a Director of Blacktown Venue Management from 2010 and led the Board as Chairman from 2019.

Tony was known for his warmth, generosity and unwavering commitment to his community. We at BVM will miss his leadership, guidance and sharp sense of humour. Most of all, we will miss his deep love for the people who he came to know and who came to know him.

Vale Tony Bleasdale.

Vale Bill McNamara OAM

1927–2024

This year we lost a proud Riverstone man who contributed so much to the growth and development of Western Sydney – former BVM Director William (Bill) McNamara OAM.

Bill founded the McNamara Group in the 1950s and was instrumental in shaping the urban landscape of Western Sydney through his many building projects. His visionary developments included the Westpoint Shopping Centre in Blacktown, Riverstone Marketown, the McNamara Centre and Riverside Theatres at Parramatta, and many other significant projects.

Bill's connection to Western Sydney went far beyond construction. He was a passionate advocate for sport and served the Riverstone Rugby League Club in several capacities, as well as being a Trustee for Parramatta Stadium. Bill was also Chairman of St Gabriel's School for Deaf Children for 30 years, and Chairman of the Economic Development Board of Greater Western Sydney.

Bill served as an independent Director of BVM from 2002 to 2016. His commitment to fostering community spirit and unwavering support for local initiatives has left an indelible mark on our organisation and beyond.

Bill was a man of remarkable character, known for his generosity, leadership and extraordinary commitment to his family and the community. His legacy lives on in the landscape and success of Western Sydney.

Vale Bill McNamara.

Drowning prevention strategies

- Aqua Learn to Swim program
- Aquatic Safety Partnership with Royal Life Saving NSW
- Blacktown Key Venues Drowning Prevention Strategy
- Keep Watch @ Public Pools
- Life jacket initiative
- Multi language water safety signage
- Pip's Safe Summer comic strips and multilanguage videos
- Poseidon, first and only drowning detection system in Australia
- Project Harmony free children's swimming lesson program (run in collaboration with Royal Life Saving Society Australia)
- Swim Sense free adult learn to swim program.

Blacktown Venue Management Ltd is committed to work health and safety and follows Blacktown City Council's Work Health and Safety Policy as best practice. This policy recognises due diligence must apply in managing and providing a safe and healthy workplace for all workers and other persons.

In addition to the policy, all Key Venues leisure and aquatic facilities work closely with Royal Life Saving Australia and operate within the Guidelines for Safe Pool operations. Staff are required to attend regular training to ensure they are meeting the highest possible safety standards when working within the centres.

Our ongoing commitment to water safety and education is further demonstrated through the promotion of Royal Life Saving's 'Keep Watch @ Public Pools' initiative. This initiative has key messages for parents on how they need to supervise their children in an aquatic environment. These messages are displayed throughout all venues with additional multi-language signage targeted to the languages spoken most commonly by local residents.

We have also introduced an image based, easy to understand approach to signage, advertising free lifejackets available for patrons to borrow during their visit. The lifejackets were introduced as an additional safety measure for weak or non-confident swimmers of all ages, allowing them to feel more comfortable using the pools while also reducing the potential for drowning. Signage includes written and visual indicators of how to correctly fit and wear the lifejackets to ensure patrons are getting the maximum benefit out of the aids.

This year we continued to partner with Royal Life Saving NSW to deliver subsidised swimming lesson programs for at-risk members of the local community. Project Harmony, run in conjunction with Royal Life Saving NSW with additional financial support from the NSW Government's First Lappers vouchers, focused on providing swimming lessons for preschool aged children who had not been able to access lessons previously, either due to lack of availability or financial restrictions. This initiative was run at Blacktown Aquatic Centre, Blacktown Leisure Centre Stanhope and Charlie Lowles Leisure Centre for 10 weeks from April 2024, and was able to accommodate 64 students across the 3 venues.
